Awards

Final awards will be presented on Sunday, December 18, following one (1) hour after the winning team finishes.

Start order

Day one: Mushers will draw for start position @ musher meeting. On day two, mushers will start in order of previous day's finishing time with slowest team leaving first.

Teams will take off in two-minute intervals.

Teams are responsible for getting their dog team to the starting line (bring however many handlers you need to control your team.).

Dogs

There is a 12 dog limit (8 dog minimum). Race manager has the right to reduce the dog limits based on trail condition. If we reduce the dog limits we will allow you to have a pool of 12 dogs to pick from.

Trail Etiquette

The trail must be kept clear at all times. Teams resting or snacking must leave room for passing teams.

Overtaking teams have the immediate right-of-way and overtaken teams shall assist with passing if requested.

No Man's Land will be marked one mile from the finish.

Bibs

Bibs need to be visible at all times when on the trail. Bibs will have to be returned at the finish line each day.

Littering

Please don't litter. Keep Alaska beautiful!

Mandatory Gear

Sled with bag adequate to contain a dog.

Repairs are to be done by the driver—help from other participants is allowed. One snow hook.

Assistance

No planned outside assistance. Drivers may receive help in recovering a lost team. Any means of recovering a lost team is permissible except that time penalties may accrue if it is determined by race officials that an advantage was achieved.

Dog drop

No dog drop will be available. Mushers must return to finish line with all dogs that they started with.

Penalties

Penalties, both time and monetary, may be assigned by the race marshal for tardiness, littering, unsportsmanlike conduct and other trail infractions.

Race Officials, Scratches, Protests

The Race Marshal is in charge of all aspects of the race from the time of entry until the awards presentation. Decisions of the Race Marshal and Judges will be considered final.

Drivers may protest decisions made by the race officials and/or report rules violations in writing to the Race Marshal at any time up to the beginning of the awards presentation. Drivers will have the opportunity to personally present and discuss claims or violations with the Race Marshal.

Drivers and handlers are expected to be courteous at all times.
